

REV. JILL ANDREWS
MINISTER
UNITY CHURCH AND
SPIRITUAL CENTER OF SYRACUSE

January 3, 2010

Unity Church & Spiritual Center of Syracuse is pleased to invite your application as artisan/craftsperson/service-provider for our 9th annual Unity Arts and Craft Festival on Saturday, June 19, 2010 (10 am to 5 pm).

The expansive front lawn and fellowship hall of Unity Church will once again be the location – at 300 West Seneca Turnpike, a heavily trafficked street in the “Valley” east of Onondaga Hill. Festival promotion will be expanded to additional paid advertising. Vendor space is limited. Please apply as early as possible (and no later than April 30th) if you wish to participate this year.

This festival is intended to celebrate the incredible creativity that our participants so beautifully exhibit and that we all possess within. Thus, any demonstration of your work would be especially meaningful and appreciated. A $5 nonrefundable application fee plus the space rental fee is due no later than April 30th. The cost for an outdoor 10 X 10’ space remains only $50, indoor variable-sized space is $65 (with possible access to electricity for a small fee). There will be no end-of-show contribution expected from you. NOTE: it is now a requirement that tables be covered.

Our festival remains a juried show requiring photos or slides of your work. Only quality, handcrafted items and highly regarded healing arts professionals will be selected as appropriate for this show. (Artists/crafters accepted in the past who previously submitted photos/slides and intend to exhibit the same/similar work do not need to submit them again; indicate same on your application.) Food will be for sale on site and at nearby restaurants throughout the day. Thanks for your interest in this event. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have, before or after submitting an application. We look forward to a fun and profitable day with you.

Sincerely,

Nancy Hazzard
